1.3. Updates the mission, policy, organization and management, responsibilities and functions, relationships, and authorities of ~~NDIC~~ NIU in accordance with ~~section 2161 of title 10, United States Code~~ (Reference (d)).

2. APPLICABILITY

This Instruction applies to ~~the Office of the Secretary of Defense~~ OSD, the Military Departments (including the Coast Guard at all times, including when it is ~~not operating as~~ a Service in the ~~Navy, under agreement with the~~ Department of Homeland Security by agreement with that Department), the Chairman of the Joint Chiefs of Staff and the Joint Staff, the Combatant

Commands, the Office of the Inspector General of the Department of Defense, the Defense Agencies, the DoD Field Activities, and all other organizational entities in the Department of Defense (hereafter referred to collectively as the "DoD Components").

3. DEFINITIONS

Academic Affairs. Faculty appointments, promotions and organization, awarding of degrees, curriculum design and implementation, academic requirements for admission and graduation, academic research programs and publications, maintaining academic freedom, and related matters vital to the academic well-being of the ~~NDIC~~ NIU.

4. POLICY

It is DoD policy that:

4.1. Intelligence education and training shall have a high priority within the Department, given the indispensable role that intelligence plays in the successful conduct of military operations and activities and in carrying out the mission of the Department of Defense.

4.2. Accordingly, the Department of Defense shall have an academic institution of higher learning dedicated to the pursuit of intelligence education and research, to serve as the DoD lead for academic outreach in the field of intelligence, and to serve as the institution of higher learning in the Department regarding intelligence education.

4.3. ~~NDIC~~ NIU shall fulfill the mission requirement outlined in paragraph 5.

5. MISSION

~~NDIC~~ NIU shall:

5.1. Prepare intelligence professionals, both military and civilian, through education and research, to work with skill and dedication in identifying and effectively integrating foreign, military, and domestic intelligence in defense of the homeland and of U.S. interests abroad.

5.2. Place high priority on education and research to meet the combat and peacetime intelligence needs of the Department of Defense.

5.3. Enhance the competence of intelligence professionals attending ~~NDIC~~ NIU through a variety of academic and educational programs, which include granting intelligence undergraduate and graduate degrees according to Reference (~~de~~), undertaking and disseminating intelligence research in the furtherance of those programs, and establishing and enforcing appropriate learning standards.

5.4. Act as the DoD primary point of contact for academic outreach regarding intelligence matters.

5.5. Contribute to the educational and professional career development of military and Federal civilian personnel who are pursuing careers in intelligence, defense policy and programs, homeland defense, or homeland security.

5.6. Continue the expansion of degree-program offerings, international programs, research, and academic outreach to Federal, public, and private colleges and universities, as part of a continuing advancement toward university status.

6. ORGANIZATION AND MANAGEMENT

6.1. The President of ~~NDIC~~ NIU shall be appointed by the Director, Defense Intelligence Agency, with advice from the ~~NDIC~~ NIU Board of Visitors and in accordance with procedures outlined by the Commission on Higher Education of the Middle States Association of Colleges and Schools (hereafter referred to as the "Commission on Higher Education"). The President shall be a Senior Executive or an equivalent general officer or flag officer. The President shall be responsible for the academic affairs of ~~NDIC~~ NIU, unless otherwise stipulated in this Instruction or separately by the Director of DIA.

6.2. The ~~NDIC~~ NIU Board of Visitors shall be appointed by the Director of DIA in accordance with applicable laws and regulations, including appendix 2 to title 5 United States Code (Reference (ef)) and DoD ~~Directive-Instruction~~ 5105.04 (Reference (fg)).

6.3. The ~~NDIC~~ NIU military staff, civilian staff, and faculty of ~~NDIC~~ NIU shall be selected by the President of ~~NDIC~~ NIU with the concurrence of the Director of DIA. Military personnel shall be selected on an equitable basis from nominees submitted by the Secretaries of the Military Departments under the approved Joint Manpower Program in accordance with Chairman of the Joint Chiefs of Staff Instruction 1001.01 (Reference (gh)).

6.4. The civilian staff shall be selected in accordance with applicable laws and regulations and DIA and ~~NDIC~~ NIU personnel policies.

6.5. DIA shall bear all pay, allowances, and Permanent Change of Station (PCS) travel costs of civilians assigned to the staff and faculty of the ~~NDIC~~ NIU.

6.6. With advice and recommendations from the President of ~~NDIC~~ NIU, the Director of DIA shall oversee administrative and logistical support furnished by the Secretaries of the Military Departments in accordance with DoD Instruction 4000.19 (Reference (hi)).

7. RESPONSIBILITIES AND FUNCTIONS

7.1. The Under Secretary of Defense for Intelligence (USD(I)), in accordance with Reference (c), shall:

7.1.1. Provide overall supervision and policy oversight for intelligence education to the Defense Intelligence Components and assign Defense Intelligence education responsibilities, as necessary.
